WASHINGTON PARK ENTRIES.

The thirteen Washington Park Stakes which closed May 3 received an aggregate of 805 entries, divided as follows:

The American Derby.....3-y-o.....1-1-2 m.40
The Sheridan Stakes.....3-y-o.....1-1-4 m.33
The Drexel Stakes.....3-y-o.....1 m.....61
The Englewood Stakes.....3-y-o.....1 m.....40
The Midway Stakes.....3-y-o.....1-1-6 m.67
The Oakwood Handicap.....3-y-o.....1-1-8 m.62
The Great Western Handicap.....3-y-o.....1-1-2 m.48
The Wheeler Handicap.....3-y-o.....1-1-4 m.72
The Lakeside Stakes.....2-y-o.....5-8 m.....72
The Kenwood Stakes.....2-y-o.....1-1-6 m.67
The Edgewater Stakes.....2-y-o.....1-1-6 m.67
The Hyde Park Stakes.....2-y-o.....3-4 m.....93
The Quickstep Stakes.....2-y-o.....1-2 m.....79

Considering the late date when it was decided by the Washington Park Club officials to give a race meeting this year and the enforced scantiness of time allotted for making entries to the stakes announced, it must be said that owners of good race horses have made a magnificent response to the invitation to once more gather within the hospitable inclosure of the banner track of the west. It must be remembered that training and racing operations have now been in progress so long that the deadwood has been singled out and cleared away, so that the entries to the Washington Park stakes are made up of horses in active training that have shown their owners they can run fast enough to inspire the reasonable belief that they can win races in good company. This is a pleasing condition of affairs, because it insures good fields of starters made up of the proved best horses of the day, and nothing better could be asked for by those who are looking forward with keen anticipation to the revival of the glories of racing over the great South Side course.

Forty three-year-olds have been named as candidates for American Derby honors. The list in full is as follows:

THE AMERICAN DERBY.

A winner of a three-year-old stake of the value of $3,000 to carry 3 lbs.; of two such stakes, or one of $5,000, 5 lbs.; of three or more three-year-old stakes of the value of $3,000 each 7 lbs. extra. W. M. Wallace's Hampden, b. c, by Hanover—Altivola.

Woodford & Buckner's Pink Coat, b. c, by Leonatus—Alice Brand.

In the list are three that are already Derby winners, Plaudit, Lieber Karl and Traverser. California promises to send along Fonsavannah, Count of Flanders, Eddie Jones, Borgia, Bitter Root and Midian, all winners of distinction over the San Francisco tracks. The east contributes Mirthful and Warrenton, two sturdy colts of proved speed and resolution. Three fillies, Alleviate, Eva Rice and Lizzie Cavalier will try to equal the renown won by Modesty in the first American Derby. The season is early yet and horse form is subject to striking changes. If the race was to be decided now, Plaudit would be the rankest of favorites, but who can tell what new stars may gleam out before the end of June? John Bright, Pink Coat, Van Antwerp, Sacket, Frank Thompson, Gibraltar, Bannockburn and Duke of Haven. Here is a world of promising material. Secretary Howard can look confidently forward to a Derby field more than equal to that which drew more people to see Rey el Santa Anita gallop home alone in 1894, than ever went to see the decision of a Brooklyn, Suburban or a Futurity.

The handicaps have drawn all the good horses of the west and are bound to produce splendid contests. The Wheeler has naturally attracted the largest entry list, but the Oakwood and Great Western have material that insures races up to the past standard of these important events. The task of apportioning an equitable assignment of weight to the grand list of horses engaged is no light one, but Secretary Howard will be found equal to the occasion. Flying Dutchman, Fervor, Simon W, The Roman, Installer, Vinctor, Candelaria, Salvable, Dr. Sheppard, Imp, Fonsavannah, Paul Griggs, Salvado, Bannockburn, Buck Massie, Judge Denny, Carnero, Satsuma, King's Counsel, Lieber Karl, Macy, Greyhurst, Fleur de Lis, White Frost, Buckvidere, Collins, Dunois, On Deck, Typhoon II, Bliss Rucker, Redskin, Fleischman, Elusive, Algol, Schiller, are among the shining names that will engage his considerate attention before long.

The other stakes will be the subject of comment in DAILY RACING FORM later. The flower of the western 3-year-old fillies will be found in the Englewood Stakes, while the events for 2-year-olds have secured all the good ones in training.

RICHARD J'S HANDICAP.

The rain fell in torrents after the second race at Lakeside yesterday. The last two races were over a track that had a covering of sloppy mud. The biggest crowd of the season was out. The ring did pretty well for itself, though it had bits of pain.

A handicap at five and a half furlongs was the main racing piece and nine speedy horses faced the starter. Flotow was the opening favorite around 8 to 5, but before post time Richard J, heavily back, was the even money choice. After Peter McCue and Graziella had raced themselves and others into submission, Richard J came away and won easily.

Pearl, after her defeat through carelessness on Friday, scored a clever victory in the last race. She was heavily played at 3 to 1. The filly got away poorly, wore her field down and beat Czarowitz on the post.

The defeat of Daily Racing Form in the second was a set back for the public. He was heavily and consistently backed at 8 to 5 but from where he got away had no earthly and hardly a heavenly chance to win. The colt is a bad actor—his mother was of his mental pattern—and is consequently not a good horse from a speculative point of view.

Mulvihill, Skillman, Mitt Boyken and Deerfoot won the other races. None had any sparks about them.

So did Castake; best in mellow going also. Was badly ridden. Neglectance is a dash horse, and was outclassed. Lolo was used a lot, and stopped all over at finish. Is only a sprinter.

Winner—Br. f, by Hindoo—Calphurnia.
Start fair. Won easily. Humidity was decidedly the best today, and besides, was much the best ridden. She was lucky in the race, too. Canace was badly handled, cut off and jostled on both turns and did well under adverse conditions. She is a good filly. Jennie Reid is on the improving list and will do to keep in mind. Start good. Won in a hard drive. The best horse won. Watomba favors soft going. It was made to her order. She is good and was well handled. Mistleton is most uncertain. Closed strong. Colonel Dan ran below the mark. He was killed off by pacemaking and stopped to nothing on end. Had a lot of speed. Tab him. Finnegan was used a lot. He favors hard going. Was well ridden and is ready for what he can do. Charlotte was outclassed. York was not suited by going.

He was in and out and all over the race track. Charlo was a trifle short. He showed a lot of speed but died away when the pinch came. Bald

Ned has worked well and was played on the strength of it. He showed a little speed, but no quality. Guatemoc was interfered with and obliged to pull up on the far turn.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Teuton—Annie Woodcock.
Post 10 minutes. Start poor. Won driving and staggering; second, third and fourth doing their best. Skillman ran a much improved race. The way the luck broke he was the best. Lew Hopper was interfered with often and ran a good race. Carrie Lyle and Daily Racing Form are mean actors at the post and caused the delay. Neither had a chance when the start was made. Warren Point was heavily played, but evidently was a trifle short. The race should do him good. Watch Brother Fred.
Scratched—Stars and Stripes, 86; Treeby, 98.
Overweights—Irby B, 4 pounds; Carrie Lyle, 2.
